FEMALES OF FALL SALE

September 20, 2024

Austin, Minnesota

Welcome

The North Central Highland Cattle Association is proud to bring you our seventh Highland cattle auction. This year's sale is special and features a "female" only sale with genetics represented from all areas of the Highland breed. All animals are extensively tested for diseases and passed a bill of health with a veterinary health inspection. These Highland ladies are all halter broke and ready to be led on to your trailer. Powerful genetics. Healthy animals. Docile Highlands. Don't miss your opportunity to take these beauties home.

Schon Boden's Joy
Schon Boden's Jenny

It's Time to get your hands on this heifer. "Timey" was shown by an eight-year-old at our county fair in August. She is puppy-dog halter broke and kid-friendly. She wants to be loved on and brushed. Besides personality, she brings the powerful genetics found in the champion genetics behind GOF Broadstone 13 B and Schon Boden's Josie. "Timey" has great feet and legs and shows exceptional growth for her age. She is feminine in her design and should produce some exceptional calves down the road. Don't waste time and take this good heifer home.

Morgana of Blackwatch (AI,D)
Constellation of Swains GBB (D)
Constella of Blackwatch (AI)

Hoy Jenny's Girl

Monarch is an easy-going heifer with personality and a pedigree you won't find anywhere else. She was sired by the German bull Cliadhamh Mor 2nd vomSunderberg and her dam is an old cow going back to the Scottish bull Gille Buidhe of Benmore. Longevity, excellent udders, strong feet and legs and good temperaments carry through this maternal line. Monarch is stylish and should be a competitive show heifer and/or an exceptional foundation animal for your herd. She damaged a horn as a young calf and will likely have asymmetrical horns. If you're looking for an outcross, Monarch is your girl!

ARR Onyx's Lucille
Sunset Kilkenney -11769- (D)
ARR Black Onyx
Marsh Creek Maybelle

Liberty is a dog tame red, yearling heifer. She is halter broke and has been shown, placing well in her classes. This heifer has a great pedigree with bulls: HSC Elijah the 2013 NWSS Reserve Grand Champion Bull and Black Watch Emmett the 2004 AHCA Show Bull of the Year on her Sires side. Her dam was a good breeding cow with good feet, a good bag and teat score, and became an impact dam, never needing assistance during or after calving. This sweet heifer would be a great addition to your herd as either a show or breeding prospect.

NC104 HG Mystique (ET,PV,D)

GH Mr Chips (D)
Glen Haven Andreana
Gray Owl's Britta (D)
Willmorrie's Cube Mtn. Artur
JAR Britni
Jar Brianne

Mystique is super deep and long with a great leg set. Her slightly crooked horn adds to her "mystique" and character. Her sire was a powerful white bull who originates from the famous Glen Osprey Farm. He was the North American Champion bull in 1994. GOF imported many cattle directly from Scotland. Broadstone's offspring were known to be fast growing. The last calf born from Broadstone before 2023 in the USA was in 2007. Her dam is the full sibling to Gray Owl's Bearach, the 2013 Senior Bull Champion at the NWSS. Britta is one of our top donor cows. Tested negative for nt821.

West Point Highland's Wilhelmina is the second of three calves of the strikingly attractive 2019 cow, CSF Minnehaha. Both Wilhelmina's dam and granddam have exceptional udders, and both her granddam and great granddam are impact dams. Wilhelmina's sire, CSF Roosevelt is a big Scottish style bull with good Neogen calving ease and production trait scores who has sired many high quality females. Wilhelmina is long and deep, and if her breeding is any indication, she should have an exceptional udder. Adjusted BW-75 lbs. Adjusted WW-394 lbs. She is nt821 negative.

Here's a culmination of a long line of Gray Owl animals. Daphne is one of the few progeny out of Gray Owl's Mack, a stout, correct bull that was a spitting image of his father GH Mr. Chips, a rare find from Glen Haven farm. Daphne also boasts JAR breeding on both sides of the family. Daphne is a stout girl with good feet and legs. She is confirmed pregnant with an estimated calving date of late November to Early December to Kilmacolm Calum of Heritage, a dun-colored Canadian import bull. Daphne is halter broke and follows a bucket.
