2023 SALE AGREEMENT (Consignment Sale)

Name of Sale: Highland Cattle Production Sale presented by NCHCA

Date: June 3, 2023

By participating in this consignment sale, I agree to abide by all rules regarding the sale. I understand that sale proceeds will be disbursed within a 60-day period after the sale.

Cost: I also understand that all consignments will be charged a uniform sales commission of 8% to cover shared expenses from all consignors for advertising, catalogs, sale bidding platform, etc. I agree that commission will be charged on any last bid received in the sale ring and it constitutes the basis for sale expense, which includes floor prices, pass outs, etc., and the seller will be charged 8% commission for the sale or 4% commission for buy backs, based on this number. I understand that any buy back or reserve limit must be submitted to the sale committee chair by May 25, 2023, or I can bid on the animal and buy it back myself as well. I understand that entry fees ($50 per animal for NCHCA members, $80 for non-members) are not refundable.

No Published Minimums: The NCHCA Highland Production Sale does not and will not publish reserves or indicate if an animal has met a reserve on the sale. It is the responsibility of the seller to set a reserve limit price as outlined above, but it will not be published. Anyone found to publicly share reserve prices may be banned from participating in future sales.

No Pre-selling Animals: Anyone who uses the NCHCA Production Sale to promote their animal and sell it before the sale, may be banned from participating in future sales.

Ownership: I certify that I am the owner of the consigned cattle, and all statements, pedigrees, photos and video information provided is factual and in accordance with the guidelines of the American Highland Cattle Association.

Permission: I give the Highland Production Sale presented by North Central Highland Cattle Association committee permission to use my information and the images provided to promote my submissions as they best see fit.

Health Requirements: I have read and will adhere to the following requirements. Registered animals must have a legible tattoo that corresponds with registration papers. All animals must have a USDA-APHIS approved ear tag linking to the farm of origin. Pregnant animals must be confirmed in calf by May 25. All entries must be pouched with parasitological control within 10 days of buyer pick up (please be sure that your product contains appropriate measures for sucking lice) and date of treatment must be provided. All bulls born 15 months or older must pass a breeding soundness exam, performed by a licensed veterinarian. Any non-virgin bull will need to be Trichomoniasis Tested. All bull testing reports need to be complete and uploaded to HighlandSale.org by May 25, 2023, or your bull will be scratched you will forfeit your entry fee. See the official health requirements outline at HighlandSale.org. Upon completion of the sale, any animals being transported out of the state of current residence must have a health paper completed for the animal at the Seller's cost. Some States may require certain testing for entry such as Brucellosis (if not BANGS vaccinated), Tuberculosis, Anaplasmosis, Blue Tongue or other tests. If these tests are required for entry, the cost of these tests are the responsibility of the Buyer.

USA Only: This is a USA only live cattle sale. No live cattle will be eligible to sell to Canada. Semen and embryo lots are eligible for international sale, but are subject to Sale Committee Approval.

Videos and all photos are due by May 1, 2023, or you may forfeit your entry with no entry refund.
