

Highland Production Sale by NCHCA Health Requirements US Origin

June 3, 2023

All tests and bull soundness results must be sent to the Sale Committee by May 25

Requirement	Females	Bulls
Individual Health Certificate	Does not need to be sent to the committee. Seller must provide to buyer, if transporting outside of the state of purchase and the seller's cost. Should be completed after the sale takes place once the seller knows where the animal is being shipped.	Does not need to be sent to the committee. Seller must provide to buyer, if transporting outside of the state of purchase and the seller's cost. Should be completed after the sale takes place once the seller knows where the animal is being shipped.
External Parasites	Required Ivermectin or ivermectin-like product within 10 days of buyer pick up	Required Ivermectin or ivermectin-like product within 10 days of buyer pick up
Pregnancy Examination recorded either open or pregnant	Required within 30 days, if selling as pregnant. Confirmation must be submitted on highlandsale.org by May 25.	N/A
Official Identification/Tattoo	Official ID (RFID, Bangs tag, silver USDA tag) +Breed registry legible tattoo	Official ID (RFID, Bangs tag, silver USDA tag) +Breed registry legible tattoo
Trichomoniasis Test T. fetus individual PCR neg. within 30 days of sale, no female contact between test and sale	N/A	Required all bulls 15 months and older - Must be submitted on highlandsale.org by May 25.
Breeding Soundness Exam including semen evaluation	N/A	Required Satisfactory classification, within 30 days if $\geq$ 15 months Must be submitted on highlandsale.org by May 25.
Health Records	Seller should send health records to new owners.	Seller should send health records to new owners.

*Some States may require certain testing for entry such as Brucellosis (if not BANGS vaccinated), Tuberculosis, Anaplasmosis, Blue Tongue or other tests. If these tests are required for entry, the cost of these tests are the responsibility of the Buyer.